Occupational Health & Safety Management System Policy

Bridlington Golf Club who provide: a golf course, offices, snooker rooms, changing rooms, sleeping accommodation for the Steward, a bar and catering facilities for members and non-members are dedicated to providing a safe and healthy workplace for employees and visitors. This is essential to the efficient operation of its undertakings.

Appropriate to the nature and scale of our Occupational Health & Safety (OH&S) risks, our intent is to control and monitor OH&S hazards.

We will maintain our commitment to this policy through continual improvement, prevention of injury and illness.

All interested parties will be made aware of their OH&S obligations through continued communication.

We will comply with applicable legal and other requirements to which the organisation subscribes that relate to OH&S.

We will periodically review and revise our OH&S system to ensure compliance.

We expect employees to co-operate fully in implementing this policy, to comply with relevant sections of Health & Safety at Work Act and to exercise all reasonable care for themselves and others who may be affected by their acts or emissions.

The overall responsibility for Health, Safety and welfare at work is vested in Anthony Howarth; the Trustees give him full support and co-operation in the role.
